to go slowly but they (his people) were swept into the belief so strong nothing could stop them. They believed whatever Kicking Bear told them. They read the promises of Christ in the bible of his return It is strange how the white people want us to believe in the bible and yet they wont believe that christ is coming back to redeem his people all that must be done, is to believe (faith) all together strong and if we do, the sooner it will come to pass I have not joined the worship nor the sacred dance since I was told to stop way last summer. Grasping Eagle was a police man and was at the agents office when he called all the police together to tell them, he now had orders to kill Sitting Bull from the Washington. that he wished them to do the deed for the sake of the government, Mr. Laughlin gave them all a drink that day I think it was the 10th or twelfth day of August Shave Head told us he promissed to obey the gov'ment, he said he knew there would be trouble and that he counted himself as good as dead
