Bill No 31 =
Memorial

To the Congress of the United States:

We your memorialist, the General Council of the Choctaw Nation assembled. most respectfully represent that we are desirous of extending aid to the Old Good Land Presbyterian Missionary School Situated at Old Good Land, in the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory.

We further represent that said School is an old Institution that has been of incalculable benefit to the Choctaw people in the up building of the moral character of the Indian youths of the Choctaw Nation,

That its religious and educational training has been of the highest order and your memorialists feel that it is appropriate to express our appreciation by respectfully requesting your Honorable body to appropriate out of the School fund now in the Custody of the Government the sum of Five thousand dollars for the use and benefit of the said Old Good Land Presbyterian missionary School, to the end that we may express our gratitude and appreciation to the Institution that has done so much for our people.
