Bill. Yeah. Same as my mother.

Mrs. How old?

Bill. Well, then, well 80. She could still, you know, talk to you. I can make a date.

(Well that would sure be nice.)

Bill. She was a Lowrey and she's around 82 now.

Mrs. When was your mother born?

Bill. Mother was born in '91.

Mrs. Well, she must be--

Bill. No, '89.

Mrs. Well, she's about the same age as your mother. She was about 80.

Bill. Certainly a good woman.

Mrs. They have a reunion every year, that Lowrey clan.

EARLY DAY SCHOOLS IN THE AREA

(By the way what schools did they have down in there in that country where you folks--)

Mrs. Well, Frozen Rock School. And they had Howard Chapel was over in there close to Hardesty. Howard Chapel.

Bill. White Church?

Mrs. White Church south town. South end of the--Sally Brown now those were the old, old schools. Sally Brown was a Memorial Chapel.

(I've heard of Brewer Bend, was there such a place down in there?)

Mrs. Yeah Brewer Bend is south of Porum though. That's not on--it's south of Porum.

(Oh, that's way on further.)

Mrs. Brewer's Bend. Now that is really. I'll tell you somebody (static--words not clear)

(No.)

Mrs. You should take Bill with you some day.
