Mormon out of the North and north Arkansas. But it was (words not clear) that why they kill them all. (not clear) told me about coming by that nice creek four or five years afterwards. You see, (not clear). They just left them on that property (not clear) down.

(Is there any one up in that spring (?) or any particular area that might know of that old Mormon burial ground?)

You can make some real heavy thinking. Bill Morris's wife is school teacher and is a Mormon. She's been raised there at Recall(?). Now, she lives just north of Recall(?), here and Bill does. She's retired. Her name I mentioned was Opel Bacon. Uh-uh, that ain't right. (Sentence not clear), Miss Maker(?). And she's married to Bill Morris. She was married to a man by the name Bill Milton, but he died. And she might be able to come up with some good information about whether them old graves was out there in the pastures.

(I will check with them and then --)

(End of Interview.)
