(Was the school at Muskogee a boarding school?)

Um-um.

(What type of school was it?)

It's a Christian, Baptist school.

(What kinds of things did they teach?)

Oh, they'd teach Bible.

(When did you learn to speak English?)

Oh, long time ago. Growin' up. Catch the words here and there. My sisters, they all spoke English.

(Would you describe your experience at the school. Did they give you clothes or did you bring your own?)

I took my own clothes.

(Where did you live?)

Right at the school house. That's a whole school together. Buildings all over. I paid my board, and I paid $275 a year. Too much for me.

(Were there any other subjects taught other than Bible lessons?)

School, lessons and all that. Arithmetic, geography, just like school.

(What kind of books did you have?)

All kinds. Yea, I bought them books. We lost our home and they blowed away. After Freddie (Husband) and me got married, we lost our home in 1929.

(Were there both sexes in the boarding school?)

No, they stay separate. No, the boys and girls, they separate. We just all the way through separate.

(Do you remember your teacher?)

Uh-uh. (No) Been so long I forgot about their names.

(Did you like any of your teachers in a special way?)
