I been down to Mexico four or five times. Laredo three or four times.

Clinton: (talking at same time, continuing with lady's giveaway)... At this time she is calling on Rose Birdshead to come forward and receive a gift. Also same introduction, calling on C & A Gourd Dancers to come forward and acknowledge a pledge of $20.00 towards next year's pow-wow. Johnny Oldman is making introduction in honor of his brothers and a special honor in honor of one of his brothers who was killed overseas. He's calling on the lady sitting next to Imogene Fisher to come forward and receive a gift. Joe Neeley's making introduction in honor of a brother he lost overseas, and also in honor of a brother-in-law that served in Second World War. He's calling Bertha Little Coyote to come forward and receive a gift. Introduction also being made by Johnny Oldman and he's calling on the C & A Gourd Clan to come forward and receive a gift of $5.00. Mrs. Whitethunder's making introduction in honor of her husband, Ed Whitethunder, who served in Second World War, and she's calling on Inez Kauley to come forward. Margaret Cedartree is making introduction in honor of her son who served in Second World War and calling C & A Gourd Dancers to come and receive a gift. Same introduction by Margaret Cedartree and calling Rosie Whitethunder to come and receive a gift.

David Fanman: I'd like to have those Taos ladies come--Sarah Lujan and her daughter--come up and acknowledge a gift from me. I was in the war one time--war every morning with my wife! (Everyone laughs.)

Clinton: "Gunsmoke" (Dave Fanman) is doing all right! He's only got one pants leg rolled up. When he gets both of them rolled up, you better watch out! (Referring to fact that Fanman has one of his pants legs tucked inside his boot)
