Mrs. P.: She bought some furniture and that way she used up her $380.

Mr. T.: Did you want to sell your property?

Mrs. H.: No, I didn't want to.

Mr. T.: Are you sure about this price of $380? It wasn't any more than that?

Mrs. H.: Thats all....they said it was, thats all I got.

Mr. T.: For 140 acres?

Mrs. H.: 140 acres.

Mr. T.: In 1953?

Let me ask the questions again. Mrs. Haskins, are you sure that all you got for the sale was $380?

Mrs. P.: Mrs. Haskins said she was sure that was all she had, she got for the sale of her land.

Mr. T.: And she had 140 acres?

Mrs. P.: Yes.

Mr. T.: And this was in 1953?

Mrs. P.: Yes, she said it was in 1953.

Referee: Another Witness, Mr. William Bird, raise your right hand and I'll administer the oath at this time. (Oath was interpreted).
