In the morning we go to Anadarko and try to come right back. (Background noise by children). But I could put it off, maybe until Monday.

(Then we could just go--)

Tomorrow. If you don't want to go today. And we'll go in the morning. I could put that off.

(Does that--?)

I could go up there in the morning and come right back. 'Cause those people that I'm doing that business for they sure want it right now. Fix right now.

(Well I've got all day tomorrow. I can come back tomorrow night. Is that making George mad that I want to see that.)

He'd kind of afraid that some doctor might get hold of it and ask you all kind of questions. You won't have no license for anything like that.

(Oh no, that doesn't work that way. The only thing I have to say is that this is for me. In other words if I ever want to write something about this nobody else--what I'd do is I'd ask you first and I'd show--I'd give you what I write.) (Background noises.)

SHE NEVER ALLOWS ANYONE TO CARRY MEAT BEHIND HER - ONE OF HER POWER RULES

(Another thing that I've just thought about, that I wanted to ask you is that you folks whenever you were (not clear)--that you didn't like people carrying things behing you.)

Yeah.

(And can you tell me again--I've forgotten why--I just remembered that you told me about that.)

I don't know, you know what the--this, these eagle feathers are used for to fan you with after I get through doctoring you. But I've used it long time. When I'm through with doctoring I fan them with this feather. And--and then the way this eagle--well it's eating when he sit on the ground,
