She's so...cause they give the money to me. Ah, they'll still will tickle you to death. They're very peculiar.

Mrs.; They're white moochers. All of them now. They're moochey. Anda they'll borrow ever dime you've got. You don't need to expect it back if you lettum have a dime. Jest give it to um. Say I'll just donate this to you because you won't get it back. Now these people that runs this laundry over here. There's some of those Indians. I don't even know how that man even stays in business. They owe him so much. Unless you've gotta contract with the government, you jest better never lettum get in debt to you.

Mr.: Now, you go out here and trade with a restricted Indian anda if he owes ya he... you go down to see the agent...he said, well, he said, you jest haveta, you jest... if you can't get it out of em...it's your hard luck. But if you'll go through the agent. Say he put up a store. You got to see the agent and the agent, OK. A groceries bill...then you know that Indians got to pay and cause he don't all you've got to do is notify the agent and the agent will collect it for you.

Mrs.: Cuts if off their check, you know. They get a check ever so often.

Mr.: Oh, this town, I guess this town, jest around social secrity, ole age systems and Indian money . Oh, I imagine they get aroun' 'bout 80 or 50,000.

Mrs.: Well, we used to have lots of Indians come to Carnegie because the Indian Agency was here. And see they've moved that to Anadarko, now, they haveta go to Anadarko. And we don't have...

Mr.: Well, another thing...

Mrs.: Only like these poor...

Mr.: They...they had to...they had to kill the agent to get a townsite. This is a dead Injun's home here.

(Really!)

Mr.:: And they found him dead.

Mrs.: We got an abstract about that thick. Comin' in's somewhar. Whar it moved the first Indian and it was allotted to. Come on down.

Mr.: And he died. Nearly all these towns around here.
