They live here at the old place.

LIST OF OLD BOOKS AND PEAMPLETS

(Mrs. Wilhite has quite a collection of old Cherokee books and one old newspaper called the "The Telephone" which was printed - what is the date on that? 1880? August 30, 1888. She also has a real old Masonic book back printed in 1856, and ah, she also has the old POOR SARAH book, which was one of the first books printed in (not clear) Georgia. And she has a certificate which is an old Masonic certificate for George O. Sanders which is - This Masonic certificate for George O. Snaders is dated the January 21, 1889.)

You can do something, you can carry in the stove wood, you can carry in water, and says you can hand him a drink and he'd make me do it.

(This is your father? When there's sick people around?)

Yeah.

(You did your own doctoring then, didn't you?)

Ah, ---

(Most of the time?)

Yeah, most of the time. Uh-huh.

OLD LOG HOUSES

(You say there's a house built here right when the Trail of Tears ended?)

Yes. Uh-huh.

Nick Sanders house.

(Down south of here?)

Yes.

(It's still standing?)

It's still standing.

(Is it a log house?)

It's a log house. Some big logs in it.

(That's over a 100 years, isn't it?)
