that way.

(Yeah)

And the Senecas owned that joining there.

(Uh-huh)

And an old fellow by the name of Splitlog, he was a Canadian Indian, he run a big store there.

(Well, Splitlog)

Great, great big fellow. And he talked his own language. French Canadian. But anyhow he was with that tribe. I think that's where the Seneca tribe is from anyway.

(Yes.)

And that's Splitlog's nationality, you know.

(Now do they, the Seneca's still have meetings houses, meeting places up in there?)

Oh, yeah. They have it--call it Bassett Springs.

(Bassett Springs.)

On Elk River.

(Uh-huh)

Then you turn on the pavement and go north about three or four miles--maybe little further. And they have signs that shows you. They got big place there. They got it all fenced off and have these pow wows, you know, these dances.

(Yeah)

I went over there once or twice. It was in the same place then about 1902, I believe.

PLAYED BASKETBALL AT THE SEMINARY 1908 - 1909

(1902, uh-hum. Now what years did you go to the Seminary?)

'09 - '08 and '09 I think it was.

('08 and '09. Well.)

I think it was '08 and '09 as well as I can remember it.
