The family is thankful--the Neeley family is more than willing to help out at all times...(Clinton tells another joke at expense of Joe Neeley and Frances.)

Clinton: O. K., Alfritch Heap-of-birds--last but not least--

(War Dance Song)

(Some remarks by Clinton--some hard to understand)

Mrs. Gunsmoke (Mrs. David Fanman) is making introduction on behalf of her cousin. She states that they are both ex-marines. She's calling Mrs. Joe Neeley. Introduction being made by Mrs. Youngbear--calling Verna Yellowcloud--come forward and shake hands with the ex-marine and ... Gunsmoke. Nellie Yellowtail making introduction--calling Elsie Weaselbear to come forward and shake hands with her...another person making introduction of her son-in-law calls Helen Brady.

(End of Side One of this tape. T-629-2 is a copy of a program of Arapaho music put on by a group of Arapahoes from Canton, Oklahoma on Indians for Indians, WNAD, about 1956. Group composed of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sankey, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mitchell, Mr. Dan Blackhorse, Tommy Blackwolf, Tommy Howling Buffalo, Myrtle Howling Buffalo, Nelson Whiteshirt, Julius Mixedhair, Mary Friday, and Wilima Sankey. Amos Toahty, Announcer. Songs include: Flag Song, Church Song, Chief Song, War Dance Songs, Victory Song, Forty-nine Songs, Brush Dance Songs, and Hand Game Song.)