_____, and so the next morning, Geroge he asked, JB, he said, what's the Sunday School lesson about? He said, "Fairy tales." He thought you were...that right.

Mr.: It was about... Well,...uh, my father had. How many children? 12 or 13.

Mrs.: Thirteen.

Mr.: I grant I was the first one. Or was it the last one?

Mrs.: Well uh...

(You...you were the first of thirteen?)

Mrs.: You shouldn't say that because the the last one's only about 41. See how young you'd be XX if you was the last one.

Mr.: Yeah.

Mrs.: He had three wives, though.

Mr.: Yeah, and he had three sets of kids.

Mrs.: Uh, Hy's sister name...

Mr.: I had a wago bed...plumb full of 'em. Covered wagon at that. I had two step-brothers and I don't know how many half-brothers, I had. Step brothers.

Mrs.: Well you had six half brothers. I can tell ya that...

Mr.: Well, I had one or two step brothers.

Mrs.: Well and one ~~six~~ stepbrother but you had six half brothers.

Mr.: I had four or five step sisters anda...

Mrs.: Anda you had three half sisters, four half sisters.

Mr.: Five, wudn't it?

Mrs.: Yeah, five. Forgot ~~about~~ about Mildred. Keep letting her out. Six [illegible] one's that's dead.

Mr.: When you get back to Norma with that, what're you gonna do.

(Well we're gonna copy it down on a piece of paper and put it in the library. [illegible] you like that?)

Mr.: Well, that's all right. You know old Governor Haskell was the first governor of Oklahoma. First time I ever vote. Anda he was elected. And then I helped elect old Byron Gore. Anda Robert L. Owens. Robert L. Owens was part Cherokee Indian.
