of them that sing yet. But it's not like it was. Then one day, they say come quartet come from Ada and they sing and when they get through they go through the crowd with a arm full of song books through the crowd, they all got a book, and people just go and come and he didn't hardly get anything. We got a lot of speakers, you can't get close to it anymore. --on that account you can't hear it. People just running back and forth. Lot of people go there just to visit and talk, you know, they sing all night now. (POP)

I went to that -- church, they had singing and I went up there one time. They sure got a fine church up there.
