feather. And that's how come I got that feather. And he say you take it home and take care of it and use the way you want to. Use it, anyway you want to. This feather got lot of power in it. And he just give it to me and that's the way I got it. That feather was given to me by my uncle.

(I wanted to know what this Indian is.)

Sho monk. Sho monk.

(Sho monk.)

Uh-huh.

(What does that mean?)

Sho, means just like you say sho mon i ka, means you thought are over with ever ybu be thinking about, on, sho mon i ka. It's finished, your thoughts are finished too.

(How did you get that name?)

I don't know. My uncle gave me that name. I was sick and he doctored me and he said, "You used to be long time. And that's all over with now." Said, "You're going to live to be an old woman. Now your thoughts are over with." That's what he said. He gave me than name.

(What was your name before that?)

They didn't give me none. That's all they give me.

(Uh-huh, you can see way off can't you.)

Yeah way up in the trees.
