(Yes it is.)

It sure is big cemetery.

ZENA COMMUNITY IS VERY OLD - RIVER CROSSING

(That little old community of Zena it must be an old place?)

Well it is. Yeah it's a long time been Zena, cause at Zena used to be a little store there.

(Oh there was?)

And now they've got, oh just several two or three stores there now.

(Yeah)

It's a pretty nice little place.

(Yes. What was it like when you was a young fellow? Was it uh - trading post there?)

Well it was uh, yeah it was. People had, course there was more settlers live around there you know. And had a store there and that's where they trade.

(Yeah. Uh-huh)

It's a nice little place. Pretty good land around there.

(Yes sir it is. Now it wasn't very far from Grand River was it?)

No it wasn't. Grand River was right, well it was east of Grand River.

(Yes)

East of, not to awful far (Sentence not clear - TV competition)

(Well was there a road that ran through that country long time ago. And crossed the river somewhere over in there?)

Well I believe it was, believe it was. That went in towards Zena. There's another one I think that went in towards what they call, that's what they call (word not clear). Ran across in there and I forget the Ferry, they named the place now. But the old ferry where we used to go use to be back there west of Grove there.

(Uh-hum)
