

They say that Sitting Bull, when he was in Canada, told the commissioners from Washington that he could have gone to Mexico as well as Canada. I would like to know whether the Indians ever planned to go to Mexico when the soldiers got after them after the Custer fight.