I have heard that Sitting Bull's name was given to him because he was spared by a Sitting Buffalo Bull. Another story is that he won his name in war. Another story is that he wrestled with a buffalo calf and made it sit down. And there are other stories, too.

Now Skipping Bull was Sitting Bull's father, and they say the boy was called "SLOW" at first, and that Skipping Bull gave his own name to Sitting Bull after his first coup. When did Sitting Bull get the name Sitting Bull? Was it the name of one of his relatives? I have heard that several other Sioux Indians had that name.

I will be glad to have you tell me all the names Sitting Bull ever had, and when he got them, please.
