Kola:

Thanks very much for your last letter. I will send you some money when I can get some. It is hard to get these days. In another letter I am sending back the little book you lent me about the Custer Celebration in 1926. I hope you get it all right.

I have finished the book of your life and sent it to the printer. I think he will try to print it next fall.

Not long ago somebody gave me an old picture of Big Leggins. I am sending you a copy of it. I thought you might like to have it. I am your friend.

Ochastonka,
