

They kill a rabbit that night and they eat it the next morning and they go a little ways and W.B. shot a White Belled Deer His two uncles were blind by this time W.B. shot two Black Tail Deer and one of the other fellows shot one they stayed there that night and started home the next morning and start home and find some buffalo track so they traced them over the hill and find them in the hollow when they saw the buffalo W.B.