

Note

I

1. Where was Sitting Bull born?....Sitting Bull was born at Woo-ho-ta-la, just a few miles below Buckhead S.D. Substation. The reason they call it Woo-ho-ta-la was his ancestor's used to bury their food there.

1853

2. How old was One Bull when Sitting Bull adopted him?

Sitting-Bull's oldest boy was born same time One Bull was born, and he died at three years of age. and he adopted One Bull at four years old in place of his deceased son.

1857Bull'sGoose River 1851

3. I have been told that Sitting Bull travelled far. Where did he go? Who went with him? What was the farthest south he went? What was the farthest north? What was the farthest west? I would like to know all about his travels and the people he visited.

The farthest south he ever went was when he visited the Sioux's at Maga-wakpa. The farthest north is, when he went to visit Major Welsh or Naha-Reza-hanska in Canada. Long Lance
He also went to visit the Siksika ^{Blackfoot nation} at and Sitting-Bull held council with Chief Tangiisi and Chief Waubli-waiste. Dog Eagle ^{Crowfoot}
The farthest west he went was when he visited the Crow-Indians at the foot of the Medicine-Mountains and held council with Chief Tangi-wakan Medicine Other places he has went, but this are all that Crow One-Bull could remember.