made friends with one of the officers there and through that, we were treated very kindly.

Two years passed and we were again loaded onto a steam boat and brought back to Standing Rock.

A year after returning to Standing Rock McLaughlin, the white headed inspector took my uncle, S. B., Harry McLaughlin, John Spoor (William Whitesell) and myself to Saint Paul, Minn.

Upon our returning home, my uncle was requested to furnish a man on the Indian Police force so he gave me away for the job. I became an Indian police.

About four years after we finally landed on the Standing Rock Reservation my uncle, S. B. was taken East to the Great Father City by a personal
