

iyen go pelo Sitting Bull heyalo he reports of the American officers to Sitting Bull eetu ca tanyan oya wa pelo eyelo And he said the report is true it is heee oglese omciyapi ta akicita kau just as it is written. And they clapped their hands nake glaska pa kele

Ho wana yogni kta ke ha ca iapi Now you are returning home kin le yaksy yin ktelo le tokata I want you to think of these words. I then on wo a glake ktelo eyapelo Ho le future this will be a question. When yagni kta tka yaki kinhan nikte you return you will be killed pi ktelo iyaska kin eyiu na ceyalo The interpreter said this and wept.

ieska kin he li-ka-yo aciyapi This interpreters name was Li ka yo (Logare?)

Wana hetan un ky pi ra From here we traveled down and reached okijate el un gli pelo Ho hel The forks of the Missouri (Ft. Buford. when we ipa hlal la eun glopi na maza all reached this place, the disarmament was wakan wica ki pelo tek miye makilapi taking place. But I was not disarmed sui ca wica waquani ake sanka as I gave up my gun myself. The wakan iyuha iwica cu pelo. hehaul horses were all taken then wo on qu pelo Hetan watapeta on rations were issued. Then we were loaded ko ksu pelo ha Inyan wosla in steam boats and taken to Standing Rock he kin lel unka hi pelo. Hetan We reached our destination. From then