Mr. Henry McKay
Grand Rapids
Manitoba, Canada

Dear Mr. McKay:

Illness has prevented my answering your letter sooner. I am deeply grateful to you for your assistance in helping me with Sitting Bull. However, more than a thousand other people came to my aid in like manner. In these circumstances you will readily understand that I cannot possibly present free copies to them, as the publisher only allows me a dozen copies. I have no doubt your local library will buy a copy if you ask it. When you have read the book I shall be pleased to have your comment. Your name appears in the volume.

Yours cordially,

M. S. Campbell.
