

is an unexpected tribute and I thank you for it.

We enjoyed very much having you with us and hope you may come this way again. Helen and I both wish to be remembered to Mr. Smith and Mr. McCoid.

Most cordially yours,

Lewis J. Crawford,
Supt.

P.S. My total expenses for the trip from Bismarck until my return amounted to $22.78, including $6.98 for gas and oil, one admission at the fair at Yates and one at McLaughlin, the fruit purchased, meals, and room. I hate like everything to accept money for these expenses, as I realize that the expedition has cost you a good deal as it is. However, if you want to make payment, call it $20.
