

I have been comparing Sitting Bull with the great leaders of the world. I find that these leaders sometimes have opponents, and that they sometimes honor these men and make them presents to get them to join the great leader and stop opposing him. Do you know any story about Sitting Bull of this kind? I would like to know who was in it and what was said and done.