

Mary Crawler, who is still living, adopted Mrs. Kelly as her sister. Mrs. Kelly certainly mis-spelled the Indian names. I can only make out two of the names, Crawler (Shohan) & White Pipe (Cannopa-ska). The word Ottawa, is not Sioux. It does not ^{mean} Silver Horn. Perhaps I can get this information from Mary Crawler. The fight between Sitting Bull and a Crow warrior took place near the Tongue River, Montana, about 1866. The question as to when Bullhead called Sitting Bull, a woman, was about 1868 or '69. I shall be glad to get your new book "Dobe Walls". With best wishes from myself as well as the folks. Let me hear from you again. Sincerely
Frank Zahn
