have read McLaughlin's book "My Friend The Indian!" The Major would have been faithful to himself had he written another book entitled "My Enemy Sitting Bull!" Still I heard indirectly that one Dr. Neihardt also made comments on the story. There is one beautiful truth about these people who are commenting on the narrative of Sitting Bull—None of them ever saw Sitting Bull nor lived with the Sioux Indians. Their comments should be regarded as naught. So much for that. I hope that you will be able to come this fall. I saw One Bull the other day. He is very anxious to see the book published. I shall be glad to hear from you again. With best wishes to yourself and family. My father and mother join me in extending you the best of wishes.

Most cordially yours,
