Dear Captain Campbell

Glad to hear from you. On my desk is a fine photo of Pitting Bull taken in 1881 by O.S. Goff of Bismarck, D.T. Will let you use it. Have you seen the Fort Randall photos of 1882? - I allowed the Historical Branch of the General Staff to copy them & I am sure they have other copies I will take a look over them & ask the officer in charge to send you a selected list from ^{which} you could make selections. Sully's battle piece of St. Andrews Campaign at Fort Randall in '82 will be here this week. Pitting Bull named his girl baby for her.

I haven't read "Pitting Bull" will try to get it from the library - I glanced thru a copy at the bookstore. My book goes into the publisher's hands tomorrow.

We are in the midst of a hot campaign. I am mixed in it as my co-worker furnishes Norris - Roosevelt & Pinchot with power data especially concerning the records of candidates.

It looks like Roosevelt unless the republican campaign chest receives ten or fifteen million dollars otherwise
