

December 22, 1929.

Brigadier General James F. McKinley,
The Adjutant General's Office,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

I expect to be in Washington during the week following January 18, 1930. I hope at that time to take advantage of your kind permission to consult certain records referred to in your letter of August 22.

Yours faithfully,

G. S. CAMPBELL