

October 7, 1929.

87

Mr. A. McG. Beede,
Forth Yates, North Dakota.

Dear Mr. Beede:

Thank you very much for your very helpful letter of September 27. When I have digested it I will write more at length. Meanwhile I find that you are right and that Sitting Bull did possess a sacred stone and that it was a misunderstanding on the part of the interpreter when I questioned One Bull. I am writing Mrs. Wilderence as you suggest.

Yours sincerely,

W. S. CAMPBELL.