

THE LIBRARIAN OF CONGRESS
WASHINGTON 25, D.C.

January 30, 1947

Dear Professor Campbell:

I was happy to receive your letter, and glad to get some news of O.U., and of course, the message from Professor Harris.

I delayed answering your letter because I thought I would have the material you wanted typed up before this time — it seems that first one thing and then another caused the delay. However, here it is finally — at least I hope this is what you want — no charge — glad to do it.

I'm still in the Secretary's Office, and really it is a mad house around here — we are so busy since Congress is in session. However, we're right in the middle of things, so its all very exciting.

Best regards, and if I can be of any further service, don't hesitate to let me know. And if this isn't the right article, let me know that too.

Sincerely,
