My dear Professor Campbell:

I have your letter of the 25th instant enclosing the citation in regard to the life of Sitting Bull. I am not sure that I can get this in the publication for which I would like to have it, but I will if I can. In the meantime, I am wondering if you are right about Father De Smet's Treaty of "'68"? I think you must be, but I have no recollection of that treaty. I remember the treaty of '51, called the Fort Laramie treaty, down on the North Platte where Horse Creek empties into it.

I am getting very anxious to see your book and I judge from what you say that my SACAJAWEA and your SITTING BULL might meet on the literary path about the same time this fall. Thanking you for your information, I am

Respectfully yours,
