My dear Prof Campbell

I find your letter of Dec 22nd upon return from an absence I am very glad to hear from one of my boys of 1918 - if I knew just what you wanted to know I could reply specifically - I never liked Sitting Bull or Geronimo - who were much alive - both were cross grained, mean people and I never knew of kindly act done by either of them the importance of both was created by white men both had some medicine status but were not considered at all in the class with such men as Crazy
