Dear Mr. Campbell:

Zürich, 29 February 1936

The reproduction of Litting Bulls medicine cloth arrived. I see once more, what good drawer he was. The exact measurements of the other objects permit me trying to obtain copies. Mr. Balmer is a young commercial employes. I made his acquaintance as he wrote me about a composition, I had written, belonging Indian matters.

Thanking you for your extraordinary kindness, I remain, yours truly G. Holtz.
