

11/15/79

71b

Major Reno is again in difficulty. Last winter he underwent trial by court martial for cowardice at the battle of the Big Horn and escaped dismissal through Executive clemency. He was once tried for insulting the wife of a brother officer, and is now again accused of a similar fault, and a court martial has been ordered. He has too many possible frailties to be of use in the army.