Professor W. B. Campbell

Dear Sir,

In writing of this note

I would say, I am very anxious to do translating words for the man known as Moses Red Bull which he says he knew few better places, it look as though he can't get any one to do the work for him so I am asking what would you pay or give for this kind of work I'll take time to do it of course.

I have little of education and I am willing to do the job for little or nothing. I am sending you a book of your wishes, and asking you for information will it be some thing like this to be done if the correction is suitable and my
