DENVER, COLO.

July 5th, 1933.

Dear Professor Campbell:

I arrived home this A.M. after a 35 day trip East and find yours of the 29th The only battle field maps which I have are:
Lane Deer Fight May 7, 1877.

The Infernal Caverns, Pitt R Cal Sept 26 1867

(This latter has been published in Vol I of Reminiscences of Dr Geo M. Kober)

You however do not ask for these so they probably would not serve your purpose.

You might get something on Sully's fight July 26, 1864 from the Minn Historical Society

For Baker's fight Aug 14, 1872 apply Mont. Historical Society

Hayfield and Wagon Box Fights - dont know unless they can be found in "Fights and Fighters" by Cyrus Townsend Brady which is doubtful.

For Battle of the Rosebud see p 403 of Gen Anson Mills "My Story" - privately printed but I think I saw an Extra Copy on sale at W. H. Lowdermilks store on F St NW 14th and 15th Sts Washington. As there is printing on 4 404 I cant copy it It could however be copied by photostat.

I have never seen any sketch of Reynolds fight Mch 17, 1876 but the routes taken by troops in that short Campaign Mch 1-26 is shown on the map "Stanton Map" made by Capt W. S. Stanton U S Engrs and Chas Morton Adj't 3d of the Expedition. This map is in Engr Div. office of Chief of Engrs U S A - File No. A. G. O.
