

Lots of the m' de ans who wanted to do devotion on a high hill, were prepared by One Horn

There would be a small ledge purification with a bath of "hyssop" or sage cleansing and a long incantation, cleansing of the spirit when placed on the hill where a bed is prepared a square cut into the ground with offerings at the four corners a carpet of sage to stand on, and the devotee is instructed to enter the sea of silence to receive a message to his prayer. It all depended on the state of the mind & some stood and fasted three or four days before getting an answer
