Mr. W. S. Campbell,
Norman, Oklahoma.

Dear Mr. Campbell:

I received this week from Houghton-Mifflin and Co. a copy of your Sitting Bull and I know that I have you to thank for it. I certainly appreciate the addition to my library, particularly since I had read the book and enjoyed it so much. When anyone mentions the book to me I am always an enthusiastic witness of the painstaking research which you did on it and your untiring efforts to have it historically correct in every detail. I am sure that the result must be a great satisfaction to you.

I think it was so nice of you to remember me in this way and I shall try to repay you by recommending the book to all my friends.

Sincerely yours,

Frances M^c Donald
