

Photographs pertaining to Quanah Parker
(all but the last in Indian dress)

- | Neg. No. | Subject |
|-----------------|---|
| 1746-a-1, 2, 3. | 3 photographs--two standing (nearly identical), one sitting. Outside tipi. By Hutchins or Lanney, 1892. |
| 1746-a-4. | Sitting. Outside tipi. Wearing war bonnet. Bow and arrow. (Copy from photo by McDonald? n.d.) |
| 1746-a-5. | Studio portrait, sitting. Copy from photo in U. S. National Museum. (Loveless Coll.) |
| 1746-a-6. | Bust. Copy from photo in U.S.N.M. (Loveless Coll.) |
| 1746-b. | Studio portrait, artificial outdoor scenery. (Copy from photo by McDonald? n.d.) |
| 1746-c. | Mounted on horse, in war costume. Copy from photo by McDonald, n.d. Outside tipi. |
| 1747-a, b. | 2 photos--one sitting, one standing. Interior of Parker home. Posed near portrait of Cynthia Ann Parker (his mother) holding Prairie Flower (her daughter). Negative by Lanney, Fort Sill, 1892. |
| 1748-b. | Children of Quanah Parker, l. to r., back row: Weck-eah (Woonardy Parker, now Mrs. Harry Page), We-rah-re (married Tah-mah-ke-ra), Pah-ko (Harold); front row, Ne-hi-o (Len), Tah-too-ah-rup (Baldwin). Last 2 identified by A. R. Lawrence through the Comanches, September 1949. |
| 1749-a. | Quanah and three wives. At home. Probably by Lanney, 1892. (Ma-cheet-to-wooky, Chony, and A-er-wuth-take-um.?) |
| 1749-b. | Quanah and wife To-nar-cy.* Outside tipi. By Hutchins, 1892. |
| 1749-d. | Ma-mak-er or Hurry Up and another woman. Daughter of Quanah Parker and her mother? Not definitely identified. |
| 1749-d. | Sitting, with Ksh-i-ti (left, standing) and two unidentified Comanches. Copy from "very old photograph" submitted by A. R. Lawrence, Lawton, Okla. |
| 1749-e. | Group picture taken at Carlisle, Pa., before trip to Washington, D.C., to lead Carlisle Indian students in inaugural parade of Theodore Roosevelt, 1905. All mounted. Little Prune (Flume?), Buckskin Charley, Geronimo, Quanah Parker, Hollow Horn Bear, and American Horse. Loaned for copying, 1952, by A.R. Lawrence, who borrowed it from Wanada Parker, daughter of Quanah. |
| 1778-a. | Mescal eaters, including Quanah Parker and wives. By Mooney, 1893. |