Dear Professor :-

I have received from you since my last letter :

1/ Chap. 5 (Ms)

2/ One envelope with photos (post card etc)

3/ " " " " 1 half-Ton of old Sioux^{dry}.

4/ " " " " Ms. Chap. 1 & 2 revised.

As to the latter, this is certainly good writing - quite different from anything I have ever read before of that kind of literature.

A few expressions that would hardly be understood by most readers :

Chap. II, p. 4 a horse with a "glass eye".
What does it mean?

Chap. II p. 6 "The man's game leg" (misprint for "lame"? (Chap I p. 7)

The Mandans, hardly called the Supreme Being "Wakan Tanka" but "Master of Life", if I remember Thierz was Eied right, he probably also gives the Mandan word.

Chap II. p. 4 "indiscriminate coupling". Wouldn't "breeding" sound a little more discreet?

Chap. II. p. 3. "insect voice of the night". Misprint for voices?
