

Conclusion - ^① That by 1830 the tipi as we know it was in use from ~~one~~ at both ends of the Plains, ^② that it was largely after horses became common there before ^③ that some tribes who came late to the Plains - Chey - or some who only hunted there -

Coming of horse - coming of tribe -

Survives or speculation - who invented the tipi, who taught whom? trade, alliances, captives women, marginal tribes or ^{seasonal} ~~travellers~~ a year or full time nomads - no of variations in forms + furnishings:

great no in common -

Arap. Soc. Chey -

Black, Blackfoot, Piegau -