

TWO NEW BOOKS FOR ARMY OFFICERS.

Fifty Years' Observation of Men and Events, Civil and Military.

By E. D. KEYES,

Brevet Brigadier-General U.S.A., and late Major-General U.S.V.

One Volume. 12mo. $1.50.

General Keyes was for several years an aide-de-camp to General Scott, and was brought into contact with many of the most distinguished characters, civil and military, who have taken a prominent part in American affairs during the last half century. The principal charm of this book consists in personal anecdotes and the revelation of the essential characteristics of eminent men of our own and other countries. His descriptive powers are remarkable, and he appears to possess an intuitive knowledge of character. His references to Gastronomers, Puritans, Orators, Politicians, and Military Men are inimitable and strikingly just.

The Snake Dance of the Moquis of Arizona.

Being a Narrative of a Journey from Santa Fé, New Mexico, to the Villages of the Moqui Indians of Arizona.

BY JOHN G. BOURKE,

Captain Third U. S. Cavalry.

One Volume. 8vo. $5.00.

Captain Bourke, who has for so long been with General Crook, has written a wonderfully stirring and striking book. He was the first white man to see the famous snake dance, and describes many features of camp and Indian life in New Mexico and Arizona which are new and interesting. His text is illustrated with an important series of colored plates.
