1 take effect at some future time and shall therein prescribe

2 the conditions under which persons of at least one-fourth

3 degree of Indian blood shall be entitled to become members

4 of such community, and the acceptance of such membership

5 by the qualified persons shall constitute an acceptance and

6 ratification of such charter.

SEC. 3. Each charter issued to an Indian community 7 8 shall define the territorial limits of the community and the criteria of membership within the community; shall, wher-9 ever such community is sufficiently populous and endowed 10 11 with sufficient territory to make the establishment of local 12 government possible, prescribe a form of government 13 adapted to the needs, traditions, and experience of such community; and shall guarantee the civil liberties of minori-14 ties and individuals within the community, including the 15 liberty of conscience, worship, speech, press, assembly, and 16 association, and the right of any member to abandon the 17 community and to receive some compensation for any inter-18 est in community assets thereby relinquished, the extent of 19 which compensation and the manner of payment thereof 20 to be fixed by charter provision. Each charter shall further 21 specify the powers of self-government to be exercised by 22 the chartered community, and shall provide for the planned 23 24 extension of these powers as the community offers evidence of capacity to administer them. Each charter shall likewise 25

THE SALES AND SALES OF THE SALE