

1 SEC. 13. The Court of Indian Affairs shall be a court
2 of record possessed of all incidental powers, including the 3 power to summon jurors, to administer oaths, to have and 4 use a judicial seal, to issue writs of habeas corpus, to punish 5 for contempt, and to hold to security of the peace and for 6 good behavior, which may be exercised by the district
7 courts of the United States, and such powers shall be subject
8 to all limitations imposed by law upon said district courts.
9 The orders, writs, and processes of the Court of Indian 10 Affairs may run, be served, and be returnable anywhere in 11 the United States. The said court shall perform such ad-
12 ministrative functions as Congress may assign to it. The 13 said court shall have the power to render declaratory judg-
14 ments, and such judgments, in cases of actual controversy,
15 shall have the same force as final judgments in ordinary 16 cases.

17 SEC. 14. The judges of the Court of Indian Affairs
18 shall hold office for a period of ten years; they may be 19 removed prior to the expiration of their term by the Presi-
20 dent of the United States, with the consent of the Senate,
21 for any cause.

22 SEC. 15. The final judgment of the Court of Indian 23 Affairs shall be subject to review on questions of law in 24 the circuit court of appeals of the circuit in which such 25 judgment is rendered. The several circuit courts of appeals
