

1 are authorized to adopt rules for the conduct of such appel-
2 late proceedings, and, until the adoption of such rules, the 3 rules of such courts relating to appellate proceedings upon
4 a writ of error, so far as applicable, shall govern. The said
5 circuit courts of appeals shall have power to affirm, or, if 6 the judgment of the Court of Indian Affairs is not in accord-
7 ance with law, to modify or reverse the judgment of that 8 court, with or without remanding the case for a rehearing,
9 as justice may require; the judgment of the circuit court 10 of appeals shall be final, except that it may be subject to 11 review by the Supreme Court as provided in the United 12 States Code, title 28, sections 346 and 347.

13 SEC. 16. The fees of jurors and witnesses shall be fixed 14 in accordance with the provisions of law governing such 15 fees in United States courts generally as provided in the 16 United States Code, title 28, sections 600 to 605.

17 SEC. 17. The costs and fees in the Court of Indian 18 Affairs shall be fixed and established by said court in a
19 table of fees: Provided, That the costs and fees so fixed 20 shall not exceed, with respect to any item, the costs and 21 fees now charged in the Supreme Court.

22 SEC. 18. The Court of Indian Affairs shall appoint a 23 chief clerk, a reporter, and such assistant clerks and marshals,
24 not to exceed seven each, as may be necessary for the efficient 25 conduct of its business. The said officials shall be under the
