

The National Archives

Washington, D. C.

March 12, 1947

Mr. W. S. Campbell
The University of Oklahoma
Norman, Oklahoma

My dear Mr. Campbell:

This is in reply to your letter of March 4, 1947, addressed to Mrs. Pendell, concerning the casualties at the Battle of the Washita, November 27, 1868.

The muster roll of the 7th U.S. Cavalry covering the period of the battle shows the following casualties:

	Maj. Joel H. Elliott - killed
	Sgt. Maj. Walter Kennedy - killed
Co. A	Capt. Louis H. Hamilton - killed
	Bvt.Lt.Col. T.W. Custer - slightly wounded
	Cpl. Eastwood - slightly wounded
	Pvt. Gales - slightly wounded
Co. B	Pvt. Charles Luddy - killed
	Pvt. Augustus DeLarcy - wounded
Co. C	None
Co. D	None
Co. E	Cpl. Harry Musser - killed
	Pvt. John McCleman - killed
	Pvt. Thomas Christie - killed
	Pvt. Joseph Greene - wounded
	Pvt. Patrick Mopre - wounded
Co. F	Pvt. William Brown - slightly wounded in left arm
Co. G	None