out it finally got warmer and he went to sleep.

It was a warm day when he started out ~~at~~ all he had was a blue blanket and a shirt.

He went to sleep and when he got up his toes were dead and his head began to hurt then he came out and went to his horse there was a little high place where his horse was ~~so~~ he sees some pufflo again. When he saw the pufflo he did not know what to do so he decided to go for the pufflo when he got there he looked around and here came another blizzard coming then he runs to some boy elder on the creek and dig him a hole in the drift like the other one he got there finished and then came the blizzard.
