

continued

Wife's clothes	109.00
Bed clothing and linnen	40.00
Provisions	14.00
41 chickens	12.00
31 yards new carpet	31.00
Library	40.00	$ 380.00

17 John D. Jennings living with Gaumer lost 2 suits of clothes.
This finishes the Losses on Prairie Dog Creek, Septr. 30, 1878.

The next settlement invaded was that on the Sappa, at Oberlin P. O. and village. I found most of the victims from both branches of the Sappa. I placed them in the order in which their places are located on the stream, beginning at the forks and going upwards on the South Sappa.

18 Margareth Smith, widow of James G. Smith, her husband was killed Sept. 30. He lived at the forks but was killed 4 miles up the Creek, lost one span of horses and harness 345.00

19 Sarah Hudson widow of John C. Hudson, her husband was killed with Smith with whom he was living, lost:
one span of mules and harness 430.00

20 Joseph Raat
windows broken	1.60
clothing self wife and child	126.00
Bedding	60.00
Dishes and Table linens	14.00
Pictures	5.00
Gun	10.00
Provisions	10.00
Cash	35.00	$261.60

21 Leah Shady, sister in law of Raat